How do I sign up? please fill out graduate tutorial form on the next page then leave it in the envelope on my office door or scan the completed form and email it as a pdf attachment to fuentesmayo@fordham.edu or mcleod@fordham.edu. Your tutorial title should be Migration/Microfinance, Remittances and poverty or development depending on your planned presentation topic. Tutorial students will meet for presentations in June or July, with credit given in Summer II (July) upon project revision. FAQs 1: What about distance learning? You must be present for at least two presentations, yours and the one you comment on. Distance learning may not be possible for more than one or two students. 2. Will the class conflict with summer courses M-Th 6 to 9pm? No the class will be scheduled to fit students schedule perhaps on Friday or Saturday or days when there no summer classes. 3. What books will I need? It depends on your topic: please see the ECON/SOCI 5808 course syllabus. *Unfortunately our CIPS graduate class Sociology/Economics 5808 will not offered this summer. APPLICATION FOR GRADUATE TUTORIAL

GSAS Policy:

- To be eligible for a tutorial a student must be in good academic standing and have completed at least eight credits.
- A tutorial is not normally approved for a student on academic probation.
- Only in exceptional cases will students be allowed to register for more than one tutorial per semester.
- A tutorial given by a faculty member outside the student's department or to a student in an interdisciplinary program requires approval by the department chairpersons/program directors.
- Tutorials are not normally approved where substantial overlap occurs with a GSAS course offering.
- Tutorials may be substituted for required courses only in exceptional circumstances. A request for substitution must be stated on the tutorial request form and a separate, written rationale for the substitution must accompany the form.
